

Genre. Coming of Age. Spy Thriller. Gothic Fantasy.

The Avenging Silence

Written by Abel Salazar

“The biographical account of the life of a fearless assassin with a mysterious past, which turns upside down when on his last mission he is transformed into a woman who gives birth to a nightmarish creature”.

Delon is a 50 years old assassin, with a past connected to a mysterious experiment, the Queen Mab Project, where in the last mission he takes, without knowing it he enters an unearthly place that ends up being related to that project, where he is struck by an unnatural thunderbolt that turns him into an amnesiac woman with existential crisis who gives birth to a women killer creature, and his/her mission takes a different turn, to recover the true essence of self identity while not realising the existence of a stalking danger that has unexpectedly been created, setting in a weird fever dream journey of metaphysical proportions.

After a cold heavy rain, on a forest, a man uses a chainsaw to cut a tree when he is surprised by three men asking him about the Queen Mab Project, they want more information about it and want him and his family back to work with them again.

When the man refuses he dies on a fight with one of the men, another dies by a gunshot by the pregnant wife of the man, yet the last of the three survives and hunts the woman into their house, shooting her on the head inside the house, however, by unnatural events she is reanimated and kills the man. The woman gives birth to a baby boy, Delon. After taking care of him for 10 years she puts her son on an Orphanage. Delon by the age of 16, has a sexual relationship with the woman in charge of the institution, yet her son, his enemy, is a pedantic maniac who hates him.

Delon has also fallen for a girl, Tabitha, but never had the chance to speak to her, however things change when her lover is assassinated by Delon enemy there. Delon ends up making love with her. Days later Delon with the desire to make peace with his enemy is dragged by him into the attic where he sees his lover been raped by the gang of his enemy, and when they are going to rape him too he ends up killing his enemy. After he sees Tabitha stabbed to death, he is helped by one of the gang members to escape that place.

For a time he stays at the house of former orphans, friends of his.

During an excursion to a forest, still as a 16 years old boy, he kills one member of a group of assassins that found him there who are on a hunt and afterwards he is invited to join them.

Years passed, and now as a 50 years old well experienced assassin he is contacted for a new mission. This one is the toughest yet and when he is killed in action before arriving to where he should he comes back to life and kills every man. Eventually Delon enters the place where he was send to go into and there inside he finds a grown up man and a woman and a little boy and a girl levitating wearing masks and behind them there is a sign of The Queen Mab Project, he kills them. Then, a supernatural event happens, he is struck by a thunderbolt that burns his skin and transforms him into a woman who gives birth to a creature of glowing yellow eyes that grows dramatically in seconds.

When the woman who used to be Delon wakes up, she doesn't remember anything before that, yet she feels in pain, feels something is absolutely wrong, she sees the sign of Queen Mab and adopting that name, then goes out of that place.

Mab kills a man that tries to rape her, inside his car she found a bag full of money, then a letter from his daughter, she assumes the name of the man's daughter.

The Yellow Eyes Man creature is killing women.

Two weeks later she is constantly seeing the reflection of the man she used to be without knowing it for sure. She goes out and meets a woman, who end up being, Tabitha that can see her transformation that is also related to the Queen Mab Project, she has the power to resurrection and regeneration, she expose the fact that the Orphanage was a facility to the children of dead spies.

When they walk through an alleyway they are confronted by The Yellow Eyes Man and there when Mab and him make contact she turns back into Delon and they fight furiously until Delon takes the heart out of the creature. Delon remembers about a time when he was about the age of 30 and was walking on a sea shore where he found a sea shell pearl. He sits there smiling and crying while watching the sunset.